Hello Parents,

Welcome to another week of November! Here's the latest from 3rd-5th grade.

Spelling: Please note that next week's spelling test will be Thursday, as there is no school on Friday.

Book Orders: Book orders are due tomorrow, Friday, November 11. Orders can be turned in as a hard copy, or you may place an order online at www.scholastic.com/bookclubs. Our class code is HZQWM. If you choose to order online, you will also have a wider array of books to choose from.

English: Both of our English classes have been busy learning about verbs. We have also played some games to help us remember how to change between past, present, and future tense verbs. Fun Brain (www.funbrain.com) is a great resource for you to check out with various language art and math games. This week we played the "Bee Verbs" game: <http://www.funbrain.com/verb/index.html>.

Report Cards and Parent Teacher Conferences: Report cards are going home today, Thursday, in the Family Folders. Please sign the envelope and return it ASAP. Parent Teacher Conferences times are also going home. I look forward to meeting with you next week.

Last, but not least, here are your children with a little support for the Minnesota Vikings!

Have a wonderful weekend!

In Christ,
Miss Bernau
